People who attend an Artificial Limb Centre can receive assistance for the costs they have had, or will have. These costs can include travel, accommodation, meals and loss of earnings.

If the assistance is paid before your appointment but does not cover all the costs, you can still apply for a reimbursement.

You can also apply for assistance for an attendant's travel, accommodation and meals (not loss of earnings) if:

- the person traveling to the Limb Centre is a child under 15 years old, or
- medical evidence is provided stating that the person cannot travel by themselves.

You are responsible for forwarding the appropriate payment to the attendant.

If you need further information on claiming these costs, call us on ☎ 0800 559 009.

What to bring

For payment before your appointment, you must provide:

- confirmation of your appointment date and time at the Limb Centre and
- quotes or estimates and
- confirmation of any loss of earnings from your employer if you don't have sick leave available.

For reimbursement of costs, you must:

- have applied for reimbursement within six months of attendance at the Limb Centre and
- provide proof of your attendance at the Limb Centre and
- provide receipts of your costs and
- provide confirmation of any loss of earnings from your employer if you don't have sick leave available.

If you are not currently receiving Income Support, you will also need to provide:

- proof of bank account details and
- a birth certificate or passport, and one other form of identification, for example, a driver's licence, firearms licence or a bank card with your signature.
