Privacy Statement

The legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development allows us to check the information that you give us in this form.

This may happen when you apply for a benefit/pension and at any time after that.

The Privacy Act 1993 requires us to tell you that:

- The information you give us is collected under the authority of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development.
- The information will be held by the Ministry of Social Development.
- The information is collected for the purposes of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development (including Work and Income, Child, Youth and Family and other service lines of the Ministry), and in particular for:
 - granting benefits/pensions and other assistance under the Social Security Act 1964 and the New Zealand Superannuation and Retirement Income Act 2001.
 - statistical and research purposes
 - providing advice to Government
 - providing support and services for you and your family
 - providing education related services
 - providing employment related services
 - care and protection needs of children.
- Work and Income may contact health providers to verify any health related information you give us.
- The information you give us may be compared with information held by Inland Revenue, the Ministry of Justice, the Department of Corrections, the New Zealand Customs Service, the Department of Internal Affairs, the Accident Compensation Corporation, Housing New Zealand Corporation, Ministry of Health and Immigration New Zealand. It may also be compared with social security information (for example, pension or benefit information) held by other governments (including Australia and the Netherlands).
- Under the Tax Administration Act 1994, if you have dependent children, the information you give us may be shared with Inland Revenue for the purpose of administering Working for Families Tax Credits. Inland Revenue may also:
 - use the information for the purposes of child support, student loans and taxation
 - disclose it to the Department of Labour, Statistics New Zealand, the Ministry of Justice, the Accident Compensation Corporation, and the Ministry of Education
 - disclose your personal information to your partner (if you have one).
- Work and Income may give employers information about you if you use our employment services.
- Work and Income may share information you have given us with childcare centres to administer your entitlement to childcare.
- You are not required to give us information, but if you do not give us all the information we ask for, your application for benefits/pensions may be declined.
- Under the Privacy Act 1993 you have the right to ask to see all information we hold about you, and to ask us to correct that information.

Client's Obligations

Please read this statement carefully and sign.

I must tell Work and Income immediately if either my partner or I:

- have changes to personal details (such as name, address or bank account number)
- have changes to my / our living situation (such as marriage or separation, entering or ending a civil union, starting or ending a de facto relationship with someone of the same or opposite sex, starting or stopping living alone)
- intend to travel overseas
- are admitted to or discharged from hospital
- have been granted an overseas benefit or pension
- are imprisoned / held in custody on remand
- have any other change that may affect my / our Veteran's Pension entitlement or rate.

If my partner is included in my Veteran's Pension then I must tell Work and Income immediately if either my partner or I:

- have a change in work situation (such as starting paid part-time, casual or full-time work)
- have become self employed / start to run a business
- have changes to my / our income or financial circumstances.

I understand that:

- if I have made a false statement or
- if I have failed to answer all the questions in full or
- if I do not tell Work and Income about changes in my life that might affect my entitlement or rate

then

- my Veteran's Pension may be reviewed and cancelled and
- I may have to pay back the total amount of any overpayment that I have received and
- Work and Income may impose a penalty (up to three times the value of the overpayment) or
- I may be prosecuted and fined or imprisoned.

My obligations have been explained to me and I understand my responsibilities.

The information I have given is true and complete and I understand the conditions for receiving the Veteran's Pension and extra help (if applicable).

I am also aware of and understand the Privacy Act statement contained in this application form.
