

Extra Help Application

Work and Income
Te Hiranga Tangata

A service of the Ministry of Social Development

If you need help with this form call us on ☎ 0800 559 009.

What this Application includes

- Accommodation Supplement
- Disability Allowance
- Temporary Additional Support.

What other help can you get?

If you have dependent children and they attend either a childcare service, or before or after school care programme, please talk to us about how we can help with childcare assistance.

You may also be able to get the Child Disability Allowance. Please talk to us about this.

Accommodation Supplement

If you are renting, boarding or own your own home, you may be able to get extra help through the Accommodation Supplement.

You are not entitled to receive an Accommodation Supplement if you pay rent for a property owned or managed by Housing New Zealand.

Disability Allowance

If you or a family member have a disability likely to continue for at least six months, you may be able to get extra help through the Disability Allowance.

We may be able to help with costs such as ongoing visits to the doctor, medicines, medical alarms and travel.

Your entitlement to help will depend on your income. Your doctor or specialist will need to complete the Disability Certificate.

Temporary Additional Support

If you are finding it hard financially, extra help with essential costs may be available through Temporary Additional Support.

It's important that you take all necessary steps to get other assistance towards costs and take reasonable steps to increase income and reduce costs where possible.

To get Temporary Additional Support, your cash assets will need to be below a certain level.

What to bring

Please ask Work and Income staff for help if:

- you do not have any of the documents we have asked for
- you think there could be a delay in providing this information.

When you apply for Financial Assistance, you will need to complete this application form and provide the following for both you and your partner (if you have one):

- For New Zealand born people, one form of government-issued documentation stating your full legal name and date of birth (eg your birth certificate, passport, driver licence, firearms licence, deed poll, etc)
- For people born overseas, proof of your lawful residence in New Zealand (eg New Zealand passport, other country passport with residence class visa or residence permit, citizenship certificate, etc)
- Two more documents supporting your identity. These could include your marriage certificate, bank statement, phone or power account, driver licence, etc)

Note: One of the documents requested above must be at least 2 years old.

- Full birth certificates for your children.
- Proof of any name change.
- Marriage or civil union certificate (if you have one).
- A form or letter from Inland Revenue showing your IRD (tax) number.
- Gross income details (eg weekly gross wage and gross holiday pay) for the 52 week period immediately before application and details of your last 26 weeks gross income.
- Proof of any accommodation costs.
- Proof of bank account details.
- Proof or quotes for any expenses relating to your disability.
- Proof of any other essential ongoing costs (eg hire purchase agreements).

Privacy Statement

The legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development allows us to check the information that you give us in this form.

This may happen when you apply for a benefit and at any time after that.

The Privacy Act 1993 requires us to tell you that:

- The information you give us is collected under the authority of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development.
- The information will be held by the Ministry of Social Development.
- The information is collected for the purposes of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development (including Work and Income, Child, Youth and Family and other service lines of the Ministry), and in particular for:
 - granting benefits and other assistance under the Social Security Act 1964
 - providing employment related services
 - statistical and research purposes
 - providing advice to Government
 - care and protection needs of children
 - providing support and services for you and your family
 - providing education related services.
- Work and Income may contact health providers to verify any health related information you give us.
- Work and Income may give employers information about you to find you employment. Where Work and Income refer you to a job vacancy, we may also contact the employer to discuss the result of any job interview that you attend.
- Work and Income may share information you have given us with childcare centres to administer your entitlement to childcare assistance.
- Other information that you give us on your skills, aspirations, family circumstances etc, and that is not required to assess your entitlement to a benefit may be used to provide a better service to you by the Ministry of Social Development.
- The information you give us may be compared with information held by Inland Revenue, the Ministry of Justice, the Department of Corrections, the New Zealand Customs Service, the Department of Internal Affairs, the Accident Compensation Corporation, Housing New Zealand Corporation, Ministry of Health and Immigration New Zealand. It may also be compared with social security information (for example, pension or benefit information) held by other governments (including Australia and the Netherlands).
- Under the Tax Administration Act 1994, if you have dependent children, the information you give us may be shared with Inland Revenue for the purpose of administering Working for Families Tax Credits. Inland Revenue may also:
 - use the information for the purposes of child support, student loans and taxation
 - disclose it to the Department of Labour, Statistics New Zealand, the Ministry of Justice, the Accident Compensation Corporation, and the Ministry of Education
 - disclose your personal information to your partner.
- Under the Privacy Act 1993 you have the right to ask to see all information we hold about you, and to ask us to correct that information.
- You are not required to give us information, but if you do not give us all the information we ask for, your application for benefits may be declined.

- have changes to my/our living situation
- am imprisoned / held in custody on remand
- am admitted to or discharged from hospital
- have been granted an overseas pension
- have any other changes that may affect my/our benefit entitlement or rate.

Important

I understand that:

- if I have made a false statement or
- if I have failed to answer all the questions in full or
- if I do not tell Work and Income about changes in my life that might affect my entitlement or rate then
 - my benefit may be reviewed and cancelled and
 - I may have to pay back the total amount of any overpayment that I have received and
 - Work and Income may impose a penalty (up to three times the value of the overpayment) or
 - I may be prosecuted and fined or imprisoned.

Please read this before you start

The Disability Allowance is available for reimbursement of additional costs arising from a Disability where the following criteria is met:

- The person has a disability which is likely to continue for not less than six months; and
- The disability has resulted in a reduction of the person's independent function to the extent that:
 - the person requires ongoing support to undertake the normal functions of life, or
 - the person requires ongoing supervision or treatment by a registered health professional.

For the purposes of qualifying for Disability Allowance, a disability means:

- physical disability or impairment
- physical illness
- psychiatric illness
- intellectual or psychological disability or impairment
- any other loss or abnormality of psychological, physiological, or anatomical structure or function (including sensory impairment)
- reliance on a guide dog, wheelchair, or other remedial means
- the presence of the body of organisms capable of causing illness.

For more information about Disability Allowance, refer to the "Guide for Medical Practitioners – Disability Allowance" brochure.
