The Child Disability Allowance is a non-taxable, fortnightly payment made to the main carer of a child or young person with a serious disability. It’s paid to recognise the extra care and attention needed for that child.

The child needs to be assessed by their health practitioner as needing constant care and attention for at least 12 months because of a serious disability. You also need to meet some other conditions.

Other assistance, such as the Disability Allowance, may be available to help with the costs of treatment, medication or disability related expenses.

You can’t get this allowance if the child already gets a benefit (except for the Orphan’s or Unsupported Child’s Benefit), or if you get Board Payments for them from Oranga Tamariki.

How to apply

Step 1 – Fill in the form

Fill in this application form, and take the medical certificate inside it to your child’s health practitioner for them to complete.

Step 2 – Come in and see us

If you already get a benefit from us and you’re child is included, you can drop the form and documents we need to one of our service centres, or post them to us.

If you don’t get any other help from us, please make an appointment to come and see us.

We can grant Child Disability Allowance from the date you first contact us, if you complete your application within 20 days of that date.

What you need to provide

Proof of who you are:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>For you</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>If you were born in New Zealand, provide one type of official identification that has your full legal name and your date of birth (for example, your birth certificate, passport, driver licence, firearms licence, deed poll).</td>

The Ministry of Social Development includes Work and Income, MSD Housing Assessment, Senior Services, StudyLink and other service lines. The legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development allows us to check the information that you give us. This may happen when you apply for assistance and at any time after that. The Privacy Act 1993 requires us to tell you why we collect the information and what we will do with it.

Why we collect information

The information you give us is collected under the authority of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development and will be held by the Ministry of Social Development.

The information is collected for the purposes of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development including:

• granting benefits and other assistance under the Social Security Act 2018
• delivering superannuation services under the New Zealand Superannuation and Retirement Income Act 2001
• delivering assistance under the Veteran’s Support Act 2014
• providing services under the Residential Care and Disability Support Services Act 2018
• statistical and research purposes
• providing advice to Government
• providing support and services for you and your family
• providing education related services
• care and protection needs of children
• assessing eligibility for social housing and calculating income-related rents under the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992
• assessing whether you and/or your partner may be entitled to an overseas pension, benefit or allowance.

You are not required to give the Ministry of Social Development information, but if you do not give us all the information we ask for, your application for benefits or pensions and other assistance may be declined.

We may contact health practitioners

The Ministry of Social Development may contact health practitioners to check any health related information you give us.

We may use information for public housing

Information you give us when you apply for assistance, and at any time after that, may also be used for public housing purposes under the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992, including reviewing your eligibility for social housing or your income-related rent. Public housing is subsidised housing available to people in the greatest need of housing for the duration of their need. It is provided by Housing New Zealand and approved community housing providers.

We may compare the information you give us with information held by other agencies

The information you give us may be compared with information held by other agencies such as Inland Revenue, the Ministry of Justice, Department of Corrections, New Zealand Customs Service, Department of Internal Affairs, Accident Compensation Corporation, Housing New Zealand Corporation, Ministry of Health and Immigration New Zealand. It may also be compared with social security information (for example, pension or benefit information) held by other governments (including Australia, Malta and the Netherlands).

We may share information with Inland Revenue

Under the Tax Administration Act 1994, if you have dependent children, the information you give us may be shared with Inland Revenue for the purpose of administering Working for Families Tax Credits. Inland Revenue may also:

• use the information for the purposes of child support, student loans and taxation
• disclose it to the Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment, Statistics New Zealand, the Ministry of Justice, the Accident Compensation Corporation, and the Ministry of Education
• disclose your personal information to your partner.

We may give information to service providers, employers, public housing providers and childcare providers

The Ministry of Social Development may:

• give employers information about you if you use our employment services
• share information with childcare centres to administer your entitlement to childcare assistance
• give information about you to the Tertiary Education Commission, Workbridge, training providers, career services or other agencies that have a formal agreement to provide services on behalf of the Ministry of Social Development, if you use our employment services
• share information about you with public housing providers (such as Housing New Zealand) to administer your housing-related assistance.

We may use your information to give you a better service

Other information that you give us that is not required to assess your entitlement may be used to provide a better service to you.

You have the right to see and correct your information

Under the Privacy Act 1993 you have the right to ask to see all information we hold about you and to ask us to correct that information.
