If you’re an amputee, or person born without a limb you may be able get help with some of the costs of going to an Artificial Limb Centre. You can also apply for an attendant’s travel, accommodation and meals (but not loss of earnings) if:

- the person traveling to the Limb Centre is a child under 15 years old, or
- the person cannot travel by themselves.

You’re responsible for forwarding the payment to the attendant.

If you need payment before your appointment, you need to provide:

- Confirmation of your appointment date and time at the Limb Centre
- Quotes or estimates for the costs you’re paying
- Confirmation of any loss of earnings from your employer if you don’t have sick leave available.

If you need to be reimbursed, you need to:

- Apply for reimbursement within six months of going to the Limb Centre
- Provide proof that you went to your appointment at the Limb Centre
- Provide receipts for your costs
- Give us confirmation of any loss of earnings from your employer if you don’t have sick leave available.

Proof of who you are:

- If you were born in New Zealand, bring one type of official identification that has your full legal name and your date of birth (for example, your birth certificate, passport, driver licence, firearms licence, deed poll).
- If you were born overseas, bring proof that you have a right to live in New Zealand (for example, a citizenship certificate, a New Zealand passport, a passport from another country with residence class visa or proof of permanent residence).
- If your name has changed, bring your marriage certificate, deed poll, or other proof of the name change.
- Two more documents that help to prove who you are (for example, a marriage certificate, bank statement, phone or power account, driver licence).
- Proof of your bank account details, such as a bank statement or deposit slip

One of the documents above must be at least two years old.
