

Failed pre-employment drug test result confirmation form

Work and Income
Te Hirainga Tangata

A service of the Ministry of Social Development

This form enables an employer to talk about and record the result of a pre-employment drug test with candidates who are also Work and Income clients. It also provides an opportunity to talk about whether any further testing is required.

Employers are encouraged to keep a copy of this form.

You accept the result

5

I accept the result of the pre-employment screening drug test.

I understand that this means:

- There is no requirement to send this sample to a laboratory for evidential (confirmatory) testing.
- This information will be passed on to Work and Income.
- I will have to repay Work and Income for the cost of the failed drug test.
- Work and Income will contact me about failing my obligations.

I do not accept the result of the pre-employment screening drug test.

I understand that this means

- This information will be passed on to Work and Income.
- If the employer decides to send this failed sample to a laboratory for evidential testing and the evidential test also produces a failed result, I will be required to repay Work and Income for the cost of the failed screening test as well as the failed evidential test.
