Funeral Grant application

A Funeral Grant may help with some of the funeral costs for a person who has died. Funeral Grants are asset and income tested. Other conditions also apply.

For more information:

- visit our website workandincome.govt.nz
- call 0800 552 002 (for seniors)
- call 0800 559 009 (for all others)

Funeral Grants may not be granted if the funeral costs are covered by another organisation, for example ACC, Veterans' Affairs. For more information visit their websites or call them:

- · acc.co.nz or call 0800 101 996
- veteransaffairs.mil.nz or call 0800 483 8372 (0800 4 VETERAN)

Who can apply

The person applying for a Funeral Grant must be able to provide estate details and other information about the person who has died (including details about any children they were responsible for).

To apply you need to complete this application form and return it along with other information we need. You can post it or drop it off at your nearest Work and Income office, or contact us to make an appointment.

What to provide

You need to provide this application and other supporting documents. Use the list below to check what these will be.

Talk to us if you do not have the information, have given it to us recently or if there might be a delay in getting it.

Death confirmation – for example, the person's death certificate, funeral director confirmation, newspaper death notice.
Funeral expenses — the itemised funeral account. If this is already paid, the original receipt and proof of bank account of the person who paid the funeral account, for example a bank statement or preprinted deposit slip.
Proof of who you are – for example, Community Services Card, SuperGold Card, driver licence, passport.
If you're using identification that has expired, it must not be more than two years past the expiry date.

Collecting your information

We collect your personal information, so we can provide income support, NZ Super or Veteran's Pension, Student Allowance, or Loans and connect you with employment, education and housing services. We do this under various Acts, which are all listed on our website at workandincome.govt.nz/privacy

- To help us do this, we collect information about your identity, your relevant history, and your eligibility for our services.
- We get this information directly from you, and we sometimes collect information about you from others, including other government agencies.
- · You can choose not to give us your personal information, but we might not be able to help you if you don't.

Using your information

We use the information you give us to make decisions about the best way to help you.

- These decisions may be about:
 - whether you're eligible for our services
 - running our operations and ensuring our services are effective
 - the services we'll provide in the future.

Sharing your information

Sometimes, we need to share your information outside our Ministry to reach our goal of helping New Zealanders to be safe, strong, and independent.

- To do this, we may share your information with:
 - prospective employers to help you find work
 - contracted service providers that help us to help you
 - health providers if we need your medical information to assess your eligibility
 - other government agencies when we have an agreement with them
 - some other governments if you may be eligible to get or are getting an overseas pension.
- We also share personal information when the law says we have to.

Respecting you and your information

We make sure we follow the Privacy Act to do what's right when we use your information.

- We treat you and your information with respect, by acting responsibly and being ethical.
- We make sure any technology we use meets strict security standards so it keeps your information safe.

Get in touch if you have a question

You have a right to ask to see your personal information, and to ask for it to be corrected if it's wrong.

- If you have a question or a complaint, please get in touch.
- You can find full details about what we do with personal information in our privacy notice at: workandincome.govt.nz/privacy
