Home help may be available if you need a helping hand at home because you have young children or people dependent on you and:

- you have a multiple birth or adopt two or more children from the same pregnancy (you also need to already have another child under 5 years old)
- there’s a domestic emergency and you need some short-term help in your home
- you’re struggling to manage your home and need domestic support.

There are some other conditions you’ll need to meet. These are explained on our website workandincome.govt.nz – search on Home Help.

This application has three sections. They need to be completed before you come and see us.

1. A form for you to complete about your situation
2. A form for your home helper to complete
3. A form for a health professional or social worker to complete. Note: This form is not needed if you’re applying because of a multiple birth.

Once the forms have been completed, use the checklist over the page to tick off the documents you’ll need for your meeting with us.

Make an appointment to come and see us. You can do this using MyMSD or by calling 0800 559 009.
Once the sections have been completed, use the checklist to tick off the documents you’ll need for your meeting with us.

Talk with us if you don’t have any of the documents, have given them to us recently or if there might be a delay in getting them.

Proof of who you are:

If you were born in New Zealand, bring one type of official identification that has your full legal name and your date of birth (for example, your birth certificate, passport, driver licence, firearms licence, deed poll).

If you were born overseas, bring proof that you have a right to live in New Zealand (for example, a citizenship certificate, a New Zealand passport, a passport from another country with residence class visa or proof of permanent residence).

If your name has changed, bring your marriage certificate, deed poll, or other proof of the name change.

All people applying need to bring two more documents that help to prove who you are (for example, a marriage certificate, bank statement, phone or power account, driver licence).

A form or letter from Inland Revenue showing your tax number

One of the documents above must be at least two years old.

If you already get other payments from us, you won’t need to bring all the documents above. Just bring some identification you’ve already shown us, like your Community Services Card or driver licence.

Other things you need to bring:

- Proof of your home helper’s bank account details, such as a bank statement or deposit slip
- Full birth certificates for each dependent child in your care
- Hospital discharge papers for the babies from a multiple birth
- Proof of your assets (people who have had a multiple birth don’t need to provide this)

You must give us all the information we need.

If you don’t have all the information we need, talk with us and we may be able to help.

If we find out later that any information you give us is not true, or that you knew information you should have told us and did not tell us, we may stop paying your benefit. You might need to pay money back. In some cases you could even be prosecuted.
Collecting your information

We collect your personal information so we can provide income support under the Social Security Act 2018, and connect you with employment, education, and housing services.

- To help us do this, we collect information about your identity, your relevant history, and your eligibility for our services.
- We get this information directly from you, and we sometimes collect information about you from others, including other government agencies.
- You can choose not to give us your personal information, but we might not be able to help you if you don’t.

Using your information

We use the information you give us to make decisions about the best way to help you.

- These decisions may be about:
  - whether you’re eligible for our services
  - running our operations and ensuring our services are effective
  - the services we’ll provide in the future.

Sharing your information

Sometimes, we need to share your information outside our Ministry to reach our goal of helping New Zealanders to be safe, strong, and independent.

- To do this, we may share your information with:
  - prospective employers to help you find work
  - contracted service providers that help us to help you
  - health providers if we need your medical information to assess your eligibility
  - other government agencies when we have an agreement with them
  - some other governments if you may be eligible to get or are getting an overseas pension.
- We also share personal information when the law says we have to.

Respecting you and your information

We make sure we follow the Privacy Act 1993 to do what’s right when we use your information.

- We treat you and your information with respect, by acting responsibly and being ethical.
- We make sure any technology we use meets strict security standards so it keeps your information safe.

Get in touch if you have a question

You have a right to ask to see your personal information, and to ask for it to be corrected if it’s wrong.

- If you have a question or a complaint, please get in touch.
- You can find full details about what we do with personal information in our privacy notice at msd.govt.nz/privacy
