

Including a partner form

If you receive a benefit from Work and Income and now have a partner, your partner will need to be included in your benefit and may receive payments as well.

If you and your partner are both under 20 years old and you have dependent children, you may qualify for Young Parent Payment. Please talk to us about this.

What you need to do

Before your partner can be included in your benefit:

- You need to answer some questions (pages 3 to 5)
- Your partner will need to answer questions in the Partner form (pages 6 to 13)
- You will both need to read and complete the obligations and privacy section (pages 14 to 23).
- You will need to provide some documents with this form. Talk to us if you do not have the documents, have given them to us recently or if there might be a delay in getting them.

What you need to bring

Proof of who you are

Please bring some identification that you have given us before, such as a driver licence or passport, or bring your Community Services Card.

What your partner needs to bring

Proof of who you are:

If you were born in New Zealand, bring one type of official identification that has your full legal name and your date of birth (for example, your birth certificate, passport, driver licence, firearms licence, deed poll).

If you were born overseas, bring proof that you have a right to live in New Zealand (for example, a citizenship certificate, a New Zealand passport, a passport from another country with residence class visa or proof of permanent residence).

If your name has changed, bring your marriage certificate, deed poll, or other proof of the name change.

All people applying need to bring two more documents that help to prove who you are (for example, a marriage certificate, bank statement, phone or power account, driver licence).

A form or letter from Inland Revenue showing your tax number.

Proof of your bank account details, such as a bank statement or deposit slip.

One of the documents you bring must be at least two years old.

INFORMATION NOTE:
Documents need to be originals, or copies of documents that have been certified as a true copy by a Solicitor/Lawyer, Notary Public, Registrar of the Court or Justice of the Peace.

Client and partner forms

Depending on your partner's answers you both may also need to bring the following documents. We also tell you what to bring in the form - look for the :

	For you	For your partner (if you have one)
Proof of your assets and their value.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Proof of payments, if you receive a benefit, allowance or pension from overseas.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Full birth certificates for each dependent child in your care.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Your marriage or civil union certificate, for your relationship.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Your business accounts, if you have your own business.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Proof of any before-tax income for the 52 weeks before the application (for example, wages, holiday pay and any other income).	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Trust documents, if you are involved in a trust (for example, trust deed, deed of debt, gift statements, accounts).	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

You must give us all the information we need.

If you do not have all the information we need, talk with us and we may be able to help.

If we find out later that any information you give us is not true, or that you knew information you should have told us and did not tell us, we may stop paying your benefit. You might need to pay money back, we may impose a penalty, and you could be prosecuted.

Including a partner obligations and privacy

Work and Income
Te Hiranga Tangata

A service of the Ministry of Social Development

Both the client and their partner need to read and complete this section.

This part of the form:

- lists the change of circumstances obligations for the client
- lists the full obligations for the partner
- explains what will happen if obligations are not met
- includes a signature page for you and your partner
- explains how we protect the information given to us, and what we can do with it.

Clients including their partners will be aware of their full obligations, which have not changed.

Obligations

Applies to:

These are what you have to do to receive payments from Work and Income. If you are a partner you have full-time work obligations if you are:

- 18 or over and have no dependent children, or
- 20 or over and have no dependent children under 14 years old (including any child you get Orphan's Benefit or Unsupported Child's Benefit for).

People in other situations may have part-time work obligations, work preparation obligations, or youth activity obligations, depending on their circumstances. These obligations are explained in the following sections. Please read all the obligations in each section because they could apply to you if your circumstances change.

1. Change of circumstances

I must tell Work and Income or my Contracted Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me) immediately if either my partner or I:

- have a change in work situation (such as starting part-time, casual or full-time work, whether paid or unpaid)
- become self-employed/start to run a business
- have changes to my/our income or financial circumstances
- intend to travel overseas
- start/finish part-time or full-time study
- have changes to personal details (such as name, address, contact details or bank account number)
- have changes to my/our living situation (such as marriage or separation, starting or ending a civil union, starting or ending a de facto relationship with someone of the same or opposite sex, change in the number of children supported, change in accommodation costs)
- are imprisoned/held in custody on remand
- are admitted to or discharged from hospital
- have been granted an overseas pension
- have any other change that may affect my/our benefit entitlement or rate.

Client and partner

2. Full-time work obligations

I understand that while I'm getting this benefit, I have the following full-time work obligations to:

- be available for and take reasonable steps to get a suitable job
- take any offer of suitable full-time, part-time or temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised
- attend and take part in any suitable job interviews Work and Income ask me to
- take and pass any drug test potential employers or training providers require
- attend and take part in interviews with Work and Income as required
- work with Work and Income to plan how I'll find a suitable job
- take part in any other activities that Work and Income refer me to, such as attend any job training courses, seminars, work experience or work assessments (including rehabilitation, but not medical treatment) that will improve my work readiness or help me get work
- let Work and Income know how I'm meeting my work obligations as often as Work and Income reasonably requires.

Partner

Full-time means you'll generally be expected to look for work of at least 30 hours a week.

3. Part-time work obligations

I understand that if I am 20 years or older and my youngest child (including any child I get Orphan's or Unsupported Child's Benefit for) is aged between three and 13 years, I'll have the following part-time work obligations to:

- be available for and take reasonable steps to get a suitable part-time job
- take any offer of suitable part-time or temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised
- attend and take part in any suitable job interviews Work and Income ask me to
- take and pass any drug test potential employers or training providers require
- attend and take part in interviews with Work and Income as required
- work with Work and Income to plan how I'll find a suitable job
- take part in any other activities that Work and Income refer me to, such as attend any job training courses, seminars, work experience or work assessments (including rehabilitation, but not medical treatment) that will improve my work readiness or help me get work
- let Work and Income know how I'm meeting my work obligations as often as Work and Income reasonably requires.

Partner

Part-time means you'll generally be expected to look for work of at least 20 hours a week.

4. Work preparation obligations

I understand that if I am 20 years or older and my youngest child (including any child I get Orphan's or Unsupported Child's Benefit for) is under three years of age, I'll have the following work preparation obligations to:

- take reasonable steps to prepare and plan for work
- attend and take part in work preparation interviews, where Work and Income ask me to
- attend and take part in work related activities or programmes such as a work assessment, a programme or seminar to increase particular skills or enhance motivation where Work and Income ask me to
- attend and take part in any other activity that Work and Income require me to (including rehabilitation but not medical treatment, voluntary work or activity in the community).

Partner

5. Work ability assessment

Where I've been asked to I'll have an obligation to attend and participate in a work ability assessment.

Partner

6. Working with a Contracted Service Provider

Partner

Where I've been asked to work with a Contracted Service Provider I'll have an obligation to co-operate with them and to:

- attend and participate in any interview with them
- report to them on how I'm meeting my obligations
- complete assessments with them.

7. Obligations for parents and caregivers with dependent children

Partner

I understand that while I'm getting this benefit I'll be expected to take reasonable steps to meet social obligations as a parent or a caregiver. These are to ensure my dependent children (including any child I get Orphan's or Unsupported Child's Benefit for) are:

- enrolled with a general practitioner (GP) or a medical practice that is part of a Primary Health Organisation (PHO)
- enrolled in and attending one of the following from the age of three until they start school:
 - an approved early childhood education programme or
 - Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu – The Correspondence School or
 - another approved parenting and early childhood home education programme
- up to date with core Well Child/Tamariki Ora checks if aged under five
- enrolled in and attending school from the age of five or six (depending on when they start school).

I understand that I may be required to meet with Work and Income to discuss how I'm meeting my obligations as a parent or a caregiver.

8. Youth activity obligations

Partner

I understand that if I am aged 16-17 years without children and I am a partner of a main beneficiary I will have the following activity obligations:

- be enrolled in and attending, or be available for a full-time course of secondary school or tertiary education or approved training or work-based learning leading to:
 - NCEA Level 2 or
 - an equivalent qualification or
 - a higher qualification
- when asked, participate in and complete an approved budgeting programme
- when asked, report to Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me) on how I am meeting my activity obligations
- when asked, attend and participate in regular budgeting discussions with Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me)
- when asked, attend and participate in any interview with Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me)
- when asked, provide within 20 working days, Work and Income or my Youth Service provider (where I have one assigned to me) with details of my accommodation costs and service costs such as electricity and telephone, lawful debts and liabilities
- co-operate with Work and Income or my Youth Service provider to manage the spending of my benefit, and:
 - attend and be involved in regular budgeting discussions with Work and Income or my Youth Service provider
 - at these discussions or when asked, provide details on:
 - > accommodation costs and service costs such as electricity and telephone
 - > lawful debts and liabilities
 - > how I spend any in-hand allowance and money credited to my payment card or any other device.

I also understand when I turn 18 the above obligations may continue to apply depending on my circumstances.

Partner

I understand that if I am aged 16-19 years, I am a partner of a main beneficiary and have one or more dependent children, I will have the following activity obligations:

- when asked, participate in and complete an approved budgeting programme
- when asked, participate in an approved parenting education programme
- enrol my children:
 - with a Primary Health Organisation, where local provider capacity allows
 - under the age of five years, with a WellChild/Tamariki Ora provider and keep up to date with their visits
- ensure my children are attending an Early Childhood Education Programme or other suitable childcare, while I am participating in education, training, work-based learning or part-time work
- when asked and in the manner reasonably required, report to Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me) on how I am meeting my obligations
- when asked, attend and participate in regular budgeting discussions with Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me)
- when asked, attend and participate in any interview with Work and Income or my Youth Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me).

I understand that when my youngest dependent child is 12 months of age or over (or is over six months of age and a suitable place becomes available in a Teen Parent Unit) and there are no special circumstances, or I am not the primary caregiver, I will also have the following activity obligations:

- be enrolled in and satisfactorily undertaking, or be available for a full-time course of secondary school or tertiary education or approved training or work-based learning leading to:
 - NCEA Level 2 or
 - an equivalent qualification or
 - a higher qualification.
- when asked, provide within 20 working days, Work and Income or my Youth Service provider (where I have one assigned to me) with details of my accommodation costs and service costs such as electricity and telephone, lawful debts and liabilities
- co-operate with Work and Income or my Youth Service provider to manage the spending of my benefit, and:
 - attend and be involved in regular budgeting discussions with Work and Income or my Youth Service provider
 - at these discussions or when asked, provide details on:
 - > accommodation costs and service costs such as electricity and telephone
 - > lawful debts and liabilities
 - > how I spend any in-hand allowance and money credited to my payment card or any other device.

I also understand when I turn 20 the above obligations may continue to apply depending on my circumstances.

9. Temporary Additional Support

Client and partner

I understand that if I receive Temporary Additional Support, my partner and I must take all necessary steps to get other assistance towards costs and take reasonable steps to increase my income and reduce costs where possible.

What happens if you do not meet your obligations

Not telling us about changes in your circumstances

I understand that if I do not tell Work and Income about changes in my life that might affect my benefit entitlement, or rate, that:

- my benefit may be reviewed and cancelled and
- I may have to pay back the total amount of any overpayment that I have received and
- Work and Income may impose a penalty (up to three times the value of the overpayment) or
- I may be prosecuted and fined and/or imprisoned.

Not meeting obligations that apply to your situation

I understand that I must meet these obligations and that:

- The first and second time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped. I understand that my benefit will increase or restart if I undertake the activity I failed to do.
- The third time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.
- When my benefit is reduced or stopped this may affect my entitlement to any incentive payments or supplementary assistance I am receiving.
- If I act in a way that is inconsistent with the purpose for which any incentive payment is paid, the incentive payment may be cancelled.
- If my benefit is stopped and restarted again, I may have to re-earn my incentive payments.

Not meeting obligations that apply to your situation if you are subject to money-management

I understand that I must meet these obligations and that:

- The first and second time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my in-hand allowance will be stopped. I understand that my benefit will increase or restart if I undertake the activity I failed to do.
- The third time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.
- When my benefit is reduced or stopped this may affect my entitlement to any incentive payments or supplementary assistance I am receiving.
- If I act in a way that is inconsistent with the purpose for which any incentive payment is paid, the incentive payment may be cancelled
- If my benefit is stopped and restarted again, I may have to re-earn my incentive payments.

Not meeting your obligation to take any offer of suitable work

I understand that if I fail my work obligation to take any offer of suitable work, including temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised, without a good and sufficient reason, that my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.

Not meeting your obligations to take and pass drug tests

I understand that if I fail my work obligation to take and pass a drug test when required by a potential employer or training provider, without a good and sufficient reason, that:

- the first time I do this, I will have to agree to stop using drugs so that I can pass a drug test
- the second time I do this, I will have to agree to take and pass a drug test within 25 working days.

I understand that if I don't take and pass a drug test within 25 working days my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.

I understand that if I fail a pre-employment drug test with a potential employer I will need to pay for the test from my benefit.
I also understand that if I have to take and pass a drug test within 25 working days I will need to pay for the test.

I understand that if I have failed other obligations in the last 12 months the consequences of a first or second failed drug test may be more serious than those described above.

Not telling us if you plan to travel overseas

I understand that if I intend to travel overseas and don't let Work and Income know before I leave New Zealand, my benefit will be stopped the day after I leave New Zealand.

You have the right to review or dispute any decision to reduce or stop your benefit.

Privacy Statement

The Ministry of Social Development includes Work and Income, MSD Housing Assessment, Senior Services, StudyLink and other service lines. The legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development allows us to check the information that you give us. This may happen when you apply for assistance and at any time after that. The Privacy Act 1993 requires us to tell you why we collect the information and what we will do with it.

Why we collect information

The information you give us or your Contracted Service Provider¹ is collected under the authority of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development and will be held by the Ministry of Social Development and/or your Contracted Service Provider.

The information is collected for the purposes of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development including:

- granting benefits and other assistance under the Social Security Act 1964
- granting student loans and student allowances under the Education Act 1989
- delivering superannuation services under the New Zealand Superannuation and Retirement Income Act 2001 and the Veterans' Support Act 2014
- assessing eligibility for social housing and calculating income-related rents under the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992
- care and protection needs of children under the Children, Young Persons and their Families Act 1989
- providing support and services for you and your family in relation to employment, education and housing
- assessing whether you and/or your partner (if you have one) may be entitled to an overseas pension, benefit or allowance.

MSD may also use the information for statistical and research purposes, and for providing advice to Government.

The Ministry of Social Development and your Contracted Service Provider will exchange information about you in order to provide you with your correct financial assistance and other services. Your Contracted Service Provider may collect information from other agencies where that information is relevant to the services that the Contracted Service Provider is providing you.

You are not required to give the Ministry of Social Development or your Contracted Service Provider information, but if you do not give them, or us, all the information we ask for, your application for benefits and other assistance may be declined.

¹The term Contracted Service Providers has the meaning given by section 125A(1), Social Security Act 1964, and references to Contracted Service Provider in this privacy statement only apply where one has been assigned to you.

We may use information for social housing

Information you give us when you apply for assistance, and at any time after that, may also be used for social housing purposes² under the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992, including reviewing your eligibility for social housing or your income-related rent.

²Social housing is subsidised housing available to people in the greatest need of housing for the duration of their need. It is provided by Housing New Zealand and approved community housing providers.

We may contact health providers

The Ministry of Social Development or your Contracted Service Provider may contact health providers to check any health related information you give us.

We may compare the information you give us with information held by other agencies

The information you give us, or your Contracted Service Provider, may be compared with information held by other agencies such as Inland Revenue, the Ministry of Education, the Ministry of Justice, New Zealand Defence Force, Department of Corrections, New Zealand Customs Service, Department of Internal Affairs, Accident Compensation Corporation, Housing New Zealand Corporation, Ministry of Health, New Zealand Qualifications Authority, Tertiary Education Commission, Student Job Search, education providers, and Immigration New Zealand. It may also be compared with social security information (for example, pension or benefit information) held by other governments (including Australia, the Netherlands and Malta).

We may share information with Inland Revenue

Under the Tax Administration Act 1994, if you have dependent children, the information you give us, or your Contracted Service Provider, may be shared with Inland Revenue for the purpose of administering Working for Families Tax Credits. Inland Revenue may also:

- use the information for the purposes of child support, student loans and taxation
- disclose it to the Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment, Statistics New Zealand, the Ministry of Justice, the Accident Compensation Corporation, and the Ministry of Education
- disclose your personal information to your partner.

We may give information to employers, childcare providers, service providers and social housing providers

The Ministry of Social Development or your Contracted Service Provider may:

- give employers (and recruitment agencies, immigration advisors and immigration consultants acting on behalf of employers) information about you to find you employment and contact the employer to discuss the result of any job interview that you are referred to
- share information with childcare centres to administer your entitlement to childcare assistance
- give information about you to the Tertiary Education Commission, Workbridge, training providers, education providers, career services or other agencies that have a formal agreement to provide services on behalf of the Ministry of Social Development.
- share information about you with social housing providers (such as Housing New Zealand) to administer your housing-related assistance.

We may use your information to give you a better service

Other information that you give us or your Contracted Service Provider (for example, on your skills, aspirations, family circumstances) that is not required to assess your entitlement to a benefit may be used by us or your Contracted Service Provider to provide a better service to you.

You have the right to see your information and ask for it to be corrected

Under the Privacy Act 1993 you have the right to ask to see all information we, or your Contracted Service Provider, hold about you and to ask them, or us, to correct that information.
