Why not fill in your application online? Our interactive form will guide you through only the questions you need to answer. When you have finished, you will need to print a summary and sign it. In most cases, if you use the online application form, you can post the signed summary to us – you will not need an interview about your application.

To apply or for more information go to www.seniors.msd.govt.nz or call us on 0800 552 002. You can also email us at seniors@msd.govt.nz

We suggest that you read the instructions on pages 1 to 4 of this application form before starting to fill it in, so you get a feel for what is needed.

Once you have applied for New Zealand Superannuation and your application has been processed, we will send you your SuperGold Card automatically.

Who can get New Zealand Superannuation?

You may be able to get New Zealand Superannuation if you:

- are aged 65 or over, and
- are a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident, and
- have been resident and present in New Zealand for at least 10 years since you turned 20, including five years since you turned 50, and
- live in New Zealand at the time you apply.

There are exceptions to some of these residency requirements. If you are not sure if you meet these criteria, please contact us.

How you apply

When you can apply

You can apply for New Zealand Superannuation from eight weeks before you turn 65 to avoid missing out on payments.

If you apply after you turn 65 your payments may only start from the date you apply.

What you need to do

You and your partner (if you have one) need to do some things before your payments can start. If we say your partner we also mean your husband or wife.

1. Fill out this application form.
2. Collect all the documents you need to show us. We tell you about these documents in the application form (look for the icon), and we also have a list on page 3.
3. Bring this application form and the documents to a meeting so we can make sure we have all the information we need and can answer any questions you might have. If you do not already have a meeting arranged, contact us on 0800 552 002 so we can set one up for you.

INFORMATION NOTE:
To request an appointment you can complete a form on our website. Go to the “Do it online” section on the right hand side of our homepage to find the Appointment form.
www.seniors.msd.govt.nz

Please give us all the information we need.

If you do not have all the information we need, talk with us and we may be able to help.

If any information you give us is not true, or you haven’t told us information that you should have, we may stop paying you. You might need to pay money back, we may impose a penalty, and you could be prosecuted.
This application is made up of:

- an applicant form – this is for you to fill out (pages 5 to 13)
- a partner’s residence form – this is for your partner (if you have one) to fill out (pages 14 to 16)
- obligations section – this lists the obligations you and your partner (if you have one) must agree to in return for getting payments and what will happen if you do not meet these (pages 17 and 19)
- privacy statement – this is what we do with the information you give us (pages 18 and 20)
- signature page – this is where you and your partner (if you have one) agree to meet your conditions of getting New Zealand Superannuation (pages 21 and 23)
- helper’s statement – to be completed if someone has filled in the application form on behalf of you or your partner (if you have one) (page 24).

The better the information you give us, the sooner we can process your application. So, please fill out the application form carefully, and bring all the documents you need to your meeting.
What to bring

Once you have filled in the application form, use this checklist to tick off all the documents you need for your meeting with us.

Talk to us if you do not have any of the documents, have given them to us recently or if there might be a delay in getting them.

If you have a partner, there are items that they need to provide - see the tick boxes on the right, in the list below.

Proof of who you are:

If you were born in New Zealand, bring one type of official identification that has your full legal name and your date of birth (for example, your birth certificate, passport, driver licence, firearms licence, deed poll).

If you were born overseas, bring proof that you have a right to live in New Zealand (for example, a citizenship certificate, a New Zealand passport, a passport from another country with residence class visa or proof of permanent residence).

If your name has changed, bring your marriage certificate, deed poll, or other proof of the name change.

All people applying need to bring two more documents that help to prove who you are (for example, a marriage certificate, bank statement, phone or power account, driver licence).

Proof of your bank account, such as a bank statement or deposit slip showing the account name, account number and bank logo. If you have to write any of these details yourself, you need to get the bank to stamp and sign the statement or slip.

One of the documents you bring must be at least two years old.

There are a number of places in this form where we ask to see your original documents. If you prefer, you can provide us with copies of original documents that have been certified as a true copy by a Solicitor/Lawyer, Notary Public, Registrar of the Court or Justice of the Peace. Having copies certified may save you time when you apply.
If you have a partner, we need to know some details about them and we need to see some identification for them. It is important that we have this information as their situation can affect the rate that we can pay.

If your partner does not qualify for New Zealand Superannuation in their own right, you may want to include them in your payments. In this situation, New Zealand Superannuation is income tested and you will need to provide proof of your and your partner’s income.

Even if you are not applying to include your partner in your New Zealand Superannuation, we still need their details, suitable identification and they need to sign the application form.

We also need to know about whether your partner has or is likely to have any entitlement to an overseas pension. Anyone applying for a pension in New Zealand could have their payments affected if their partner qualifies for an overseas pension, even though their partner is not applying for New Zealand Superannuation individually or with the applicant (Section 70 of the Social Security Act 1964).

Going overseas

<td>Let us know about your overseas travel if:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• you will be out of the country for 28 days (4 weeks) or more, or</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• you don’t know how long you will be away, or</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• you intend to have more than one overseas trip within the next 12 months.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

We can give you advice about:

• any effect your trip may have on your payments
• avoiding an unexpected debt
• being left stranded overseas without any money if things happen that delay your return to New Zealand.

Travelling for 26 weeks or less

You can go overseas for 26 weeks or less and if you already receive New Zealand Superannuation your payments can continue as normal.

If you receive extra help from us such as a Disability Allowance or Accommodation Supplement you may be able to get this for the first 28 days of your absence from New Zealand. If you are still overseas after 26 weeks, your entitlement to New Zealand Superannuation may stop. If you are still out of New Zealand four weeks later (30 weeks in total), then you may have to repay all payments made to you since you left.

If you plan to return to New Zealand within 26 weeks, but you get held up due to circumstances beyond your control or that you could not have foreseen before you go, you may be able to keep the payments made to you for the first 26 weeks of your travel.

Travelling for more than 26 weeks

You may be able to receive all or some of your payments while you’re away. You need to contact us at least six weeks before you travel to apply to receive payments overseas. The payment you’ll get depends on where you go and how long you have lived in New Zealand.

Going overseas to live

If you go overseas to live you may be able to take all or some of your payments with you, or receive payments from the country you move to. Make sure you talk with us about your plans before you leave New Zealand as generally you must apply for payment overseas before you leave New Zealand. Call Senior Services – International on 0800 777 227.

For more information about going overseas to live:
- visit www.seniors.msd.govt.nz
- call us on 0800 552 002.
In the applicant form, ‘you’, ‘your’, and ‘yourself’ means the person applying for New Zealand Superannuation. If we say your partner we also mean your husband or wife. These only apply if you have one.

It is important to let us know about any changes that could affect your New Zealand Superannuation payments to ensure that we pay you correctly. You can let us know of any changes by calling us on 0800 552 002.

Change of circumstances
I must tell the Ministry of Social Development immediately if either my partner or I:
• start or stop living alone
• have changes to personal details (such as name, address or bank account number)
• have changes to my/our living situation (such as marriage or separation, starting or ending a civil union, starting or ending a de facto relationship with someone of the same or opposite sex, change in the number of children supported)
• are imprisoned/held in custody on remand
• are admitted to or discharged from hospital
• have been granted an overseas pension
• have any other change that may affect my/our New Zealand Superannuation entitlement or rate.

If a partner is included in New Zealand Superannuation payments
If my partner is included in my New Zealand Superannuation then I must tell the Ministry of Social Development immediately if either my partner or I:
• have a change in work situation (such as starting paid part-time, casual or full-time work)
• have become self employed/start to run a business
• have changes to my/our income or financial circumstances.

Overseas Travel
If you intend to travel overseas for 28 days (four weeks) or more, let us know your travel dates before you go. We can advise you of your options and confirm whether your payments will continue or change while you are away. This will help you to avoid having to pay back an unexpected overpayment or being left stranded overseas without any money. See page 4 for more information.

What happens if you do not meet your obligations

Not telling us about changes in your circumstances

• the Ministry of Social Development may impose a penalty (up to three times the value of the overpayment) or
• I may be prosecuted and fined and/or imprisoned.

You have the right to review or dispute any decision to reduce or stop your New Zealand Superannuation. The consequences described above will also apply if we use this application form to grant you the Emergency Benefit.
