Obligations

These are what you have to do to receive payments from Work and Income. Please read all the obligations in each section because they could apply to you if your circumstances change.

1. Change of circumstances

I must tell Work and Income or my Contracted Service Provider (where I have one assigned to me) immediately if I:

- have a change in work situation (such as starting part-time, casual or full-time work, whether paid or unpaid)
- become self-employed/start to run a business
- have changes to my income or financial circumstances
- intend to travel overseas
- start/finish part-time or full-time study
- have changes to personal details (such as name, address, contact details or bank account number)
- have changes to my living situation (such as marriage or separation, starting or ending a civil union, starting or ending a de facto relationship with someone of the same or opposite sex, change in the number of children supported, change in accommodation costs)
- are imprisoned/held in custody on remand
- are admitted to or discharged from hospital
- have been granted an overseas pension
- have any other change that may affect my/our benefit entitlement or rate.

2. Part-time work obligations

I understand that if my youngest child (including any child I get Orphan’s or Unsupported Child’s Benefit for) is aged between three and 13 years, I have the following full-time work obligations to:

- be available for and take reasonable steps to get a suitable part-time job
- take any offer of suitable part-time or temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised
- attend and take part in any suitable job interviews Work and Income ask me to
- take and pass any drug test potential employers or training providers require
- attend and take part in interviews with Work and Income as required
- work with Work and Income to plan how I’ll find a suitable job
- take part in any other activities that Work and Income refer me to, such as attend any job training courses, seminars, work experience or work assessments (including rehabilitation, but not medical treatment) that will improve my work readiness or help me get work
- let Work and Income know how I’m meeting my work obligations as often as Work and Income reasonably requires.

Part-time means you’ll generally be expected to look for work of at least 20 hours a week.
Obligations

3. Work preparation obligations
I understand that if I am 20 years or older and my youngest child (including any child I get Orphan’s or Unsupported Child’s Benefit for) is under three years of age, I’ll have the following work preparation obligations to:
- take reasonable steps to prepare and plan for work
- attend and take part in work preparation interviews, where Work and Income ask me to
- attend and take part in work related activities or programmes such as a work assessment, a programme or seminar to increase particular skills or enhance motivation where Work and Income ask me to
- attend and take part in any other activity that Work and Income require me to (including rehabilitation but not medical treatment, voluntary work or activity in the community).

4. Work ability assessment
Where I’ve been asked to I’ll have an obligation to attend and participate in a work ability assessment.

5. Working with a Contracted Service Provider
Where I’ve been asked to work with a Contracted Service Provider I’ll have an obligation to co-operate with them and to:
- attend and participate in any interview with them
- report to them on how I’m meeting my obligations
- complete assessments with them.

6. Obligations for parents and caregivers with dependent children
I understand that while I’m getting this benefit I’ll be expected to take reasonable steps to meet social obligations as a parent or a caregiver. These are to ensure my dependent children (including any child I get Orphan’s or Unsupported Child’s Benefit for) are:
- enrolled with a general practitioner (GP) or a medical practice that is part of a Primary Health Organisation (PHO)
- enrolled in and attending one of the following from the age of three until they start school:
  - an approved early childhood education programme or
  - Te Aho o Te Kura Pounamu – The Correspondence School or
  - another approved parenting and early childhood home education programme
- up to date with core Well Child/Tamariki Ora checks if aged under five
- enrolled in and attending school from the age of five or six (depending on when they start school).
I understand that I may be required to meet with Work and Income to discuss how I’m meeting my obligations as a parent or a caregiver.
I also understand when I turn 18 the above obligations may continue to apply depending on my circumstances.

7. Temporary additional support
I understand that if I’ve made and application for Temporary Additional Support, I must take all necessary steps to get other assistance towards costs and take reasonable steps to increase my income and reduce costs where possible.
What happens if you do not meet your obligations

Not telling us about changes in your circumstances
I understand that if I do not tell Work and Income about changes in my life that might affect my benefit entitlement, or rate, that:
• my benefit may be reviewed and cancelled and
• I may have to pay back the total amount of any overpayment that I have received and
• Work and Income may impose a penalty (up to three times the value of the overpayment) or
• I may be prosecuted and fined and/or imprisoned.
The consequences described above will also apply if we use your application form to grant you the Emergency Benefit or Emergency Maintenance Allowance.

Not meeting obligations that apply to your situation
I understand that I must meet these obligations and that:
• The first and second time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped. I understand that my benefit will increase or restart if I undertake the activity I failed to do.
• The third time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.
• When my benefit is reduced or stopped this may affect my entitlement to any incentive payments or supplementary assistance I am receiving.
• If I act in a way that is inconsistent with the purpose for which any incentive payment is paid, the incentive payment may be cancelled
• If my benefit is stopped and restarted again, I may have to re-earn my incentive payments.
The consequences described above will also apply if we use your application form to grant you the Emergency Benefit or Emergency Maintenance Allowance, you have dependent children, and you do not meet one of the obligations for parents and caregivers of dependent children.

Not meeting obligations that apply to your situation if you are subject to money-management
I understand that I must meet these obligations and that:
• The first and second time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my in-hand allowance will be stopped. I understand that my benefit will increase or restart if I undertake the activity I failed to do.
• The third time I don't meet my obligations, without a good and sufficient reason, my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.
• When my benefit is reduced or stopped this may affect my entitlement to any incentive payments or supplementary assistance I am receiving.
• If I act in a way that is inconsistent with the purpose for which any incentive payment is paid, the incentive payment may be cancelled
• If my benefit is stopped and restarted again, I may have to re-earn my incentive payments.

Not meeting your obligation to take any offer of suitable work
I understand that if I fail my work obligation to take any offer of suitable work, including temporary work, or work that is seasonal or subsidised, without a good and sufficient reason, that my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I’m still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.

Not meeting your obligations to take and pass drug tests
I understand that if I fail my work obligation to take and pass a drug test when required by a potential employer or training provider, without a good and sufficient reason, that:
• the first time I do this, I will have to agree to stop using drugs so that I can pass a drug test
• the second time I do this, I will have to agree to take and pass a drug test within 25 working days.
I understand that if I don't take and pass a drug test within 25 working days my benefit will be reduced by 50% or stopped, for 13 weeks. If my benefit has been reduced or stopped, and I agree to take part in an approved activity for at least six weeks and I'm still entitled to my benefit, it will be increased or restarted.
I understand that if I fail a pre-employment drug test with a potential employer I will need to pay for the test from my benefit.
I also understand that if I have to take and pass a drug test within 25 working days I will need to pay for the test.
I understand that if I have failed other obligations in the last 12 months the consequences of a first or second failed drug test may be more serious than those described above.

Not telling us if you plan to travel overseas
I understand that if I intend to travel overseas and don’t let Work and Income know before I leave New Zealand, my benefit will be stopped the day after I leave New Zealand.
The consequence described above will also apply if we use your application form to grant you the Emergency Benefit or Emergency Maintenance Allowance.

You have the right to review or dispute any decision to reduce or stop your benefit.

If we use your application form to grant the Emergency Benefit or Emergency Maintenance Allowance, and you fail one or more of the obligations assigned to you as a condition of granting your benefit, your benefit may be reduced or stopped.
Privacy Statement

The Ministry of Social Development includes Work and Income, MSD Housing Assessment, Senior Services, StudyLink and other service lines. The legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development allows us to check the information that you give us. This may happen when you apply for assistance and at any time after that. The Privacy Act 1993 requires us to tell you why we collect the information and what we will do with it.

Why we collect information

The information you give us or your Contracted Service Provider is collected under the authority of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development and will be held by the Ministry of Social Development and/or your Contracted Service Provider.

The information is collected for the purposes of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development including:

- granting benefits and other assistance under the Social Security Act 1964
- granting student loans and student allowances under the Education Act 1989
- delivering superannuation services under the New Zealand Superannuation and Retirement Income Act 2001 and the Veterans’ Support Act 2014
- assessing eligibility for public housing and calculating income-related rents under the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992
- providing support and services for you and your family in relation to employment, education and housing
- assessing whether you and/or your partner (if you have one) may be entitled to an overseas pension, benefit or allowance.

MSD may also use the information for statistical and research purposes, and for providing advice to Government.

The Ministry of Social Development and your Contracted Service Provider may exchange information about you in order to provide you with your correct financial assistance and other services. Your Contracted Service Provider may collect information from other agencies where that information is relevant to the services that the Contracted Service Provider is providing you.

You are not required to give the Ministry of Social Development or your Contracted Service Provider information, but if you do not give them, or us, all the information we ask for, your application for benefits and other assistance may be declined.

1 The term Contracted Service Provider has the meaning given by section 125A(7), Social Security Act 1964, and references to Contracted Service Provider in this privacy statement only apply where one has been assigned to you.

We may use information for public housing

Information you give us when you apply for assistance, and at any time after that, may also be used for public housing purposes under the Housing Restructuring and Tenancy Matters Act 1992, including reviewing your eligibility for public housing or your income-related rent.

Public housing is subsidised housing available to people in the greatest need of housing for the duration of their need. It is provided by Housing New Zealand and approved community housing providers.

We may contact health providers

The Ministry of Social Development or your Contracted Service Provider may contact health providers to check any health related information you give us.

We may compare the information you give us with information held by other agencies

The information you give us, or your Contracted Service Provider, may be compared with information held by other agencies such as Inland Revenue, the Ministry of Education, Ministry of Justice, New Zealand Defence Force, Department of Corrections, New Zealand Customs Service, Department of Internal Affairs, Accident Compensation Corporation, Housing New Zealand Corporation, Ministry of Health, Immigration New Zealand, New Zealand Qualifications Authority, Tertiary Education Commission, Student Job Search and education providers. It may also be compared with social security information (for example, pension or benefit information) held by other governments (including Australia, the Netherlands and Malta).

We may share information with Inland Revenue

Under the Tax Administration Act 1994, if you have dependent children, the information you give us, or your Contracted Service Provider, may be shared with Inland Revenue for the purpose of administering Working for Families Tax Credits. Inland Revenue may also:

- use the information for the purposes of child support, student loans and taxation
- disclose it to the Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment, Statistics New Zealand, Ministry of Justice, Accident Compensation Corporation, and Ministry of Education
- disclose your personal information to your partner.

We may give information to employers, childcare providers, service providers and public housing providers

The Ministry of Social Development or your Contracted Service Provider may:

- give employers (and recruitment agencies, immigration advisors and immigration consultants acting on behalf of employers) information about you to find you employment and contact the employer to discuss the result of any job interview that you are referred to
- share information with childcare centres to administer your entitlement to childcare assistance
- give information about you to the Tertiary Education Commission, Workbridge, training providers, education providers, career services or other agencies that have a formal agreement to provide services on behalf of the Ministry of Social Development
- share information about you with public housing providers (such as Housing New Zealand Corporation) to administer your housing-related assistance.

We may use your information to give you a better service

Other information you give us or your Contracted Service Provider (for example, on your skills, aspirations, family circumstances) that is not required to assess your entitlement to a benefit may be used by us or your Contracted Service Provider to provide a better service to you.

You have the right to see your information and ask for it to be corrected

Under the Privacy Act 1993 you have the right to see all information we, or your Contracted Service Provider, hold about you and to ask them, or us, to correct that information.
