Who can get Veteran’s Pension

If you need help filling in this form, please contact your nearest Work and Income Service Centre or call us on 0800 650 656.

What to send Your documents will need to be photocopied and certified (certification can be done by a Justice of Peace, Solicitor or a Work and Income staff member). Please ask Work and Income staff for help if:

- you do not have any of the documents we have asked for
- you think there could be a delay in providing this information
- you would like to know about extra help.

You may be included in your spouse’s/partner’s Veteran’s Pension if you don’t qualify yourself and if your partner chooses.

A partner is:

- your spouse (husband or wife)
- your civil union partner
- a person of the same or opposite sex with whom you have a de facto relationship.

If you receive New Zealand Superannuation in your own right and your partner receives Veteran’s Pension, please complete our form “Transfer to Veteran’s Pension form”.

To check if you are eligible for the Veteran’s Pension, please call us on 0800 650 656 or ask Work and Income staff.

How does income affect our payments?

If you are included in your partner’s Veteran’s Pension, any income you and/or your partner receive may affect how much you get. We can help work out what the best option is.

What to send

When you apply for Veteran’s Pension you must complete this application form and send the following:

- for New Zealand born clients, one form of government-issued documentation stating your full legal name and date of birth (e.g. your birth certificate, passport, driver’s licence, firearms licence, deed poll etc)
- for clients born overseas, proof of your lawful residence in New Zealand (e.g. New Zealand passport, other country passport with residence visa, citizenship certificate, etc)
- two more documents supporting your identity. These could include your marriage certificate, bank statement, phone or power account, driver’s licence, etc

Note: One of the documents requested above must be at least 2 years old.

- proof of any name change
- a form or letter from Inland Revenue showing your IRD (tax) number
- proof of bank account details.

Send the application and documents to:

Veteran’s Pension Centre, PO Box 5515, Wellington 6145, New Zealand
Obligations
It is important that you tell us about any changes to ensure we pay you correctly.
Changes in your living situation include:
- marriage or separation
- starting or ending a civil union
- starting or ending a de facto relationship with someone of the same or opposite sex
- starting or stopping living alone.

I must tell Work and Income immediately if either my partner or I:
- have changes to personal details (such as name, address or bank account details)
- have changes to my/our living situation
- intend to travel overseas
- have been granted an overseas benefit/pension
- am imprisoned / held in custody on remand
- have any other changes that may affect my/our Veteran’s Pension entitlement or rate.

If I am included in my partner’s Veteran’s Pension entitlement then I must tell Work and Income immediately if either my partner or I:
- have a change in work situation
- become self employed / start to run a business
- have changes to my / our income or financial circumstances.

Important
I understand that:
- if I have made a false statement or
- if I have failed to answer all the questions in full or
- if I do not tell Work and Income about changes in my life that might affect my entitlement or rate

then
- my Veteran’s Pension may be reviewed and cancelled and
- I may have to pay back the total amount of any overpayment that I have received and
- Work and Income may impose a penalty (up to three times the value of the overpayment) or
- I may be prosecuted and fined or imprisoned.

Privacy Statement
The legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development allows us to check the information that you give us in this form. This may happen when you apply for a benefit/pension and at any time after that.

The Privacy Act 1993 requires us to tell you that:
- The information you give us is collected under the authority of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development.
- The information will be held by the Ministry of Social Development.
- The information is collected for the purposes of the legislation administered by the Ministry of Social Development (including Work and Income, Child, Youth and Family and other service lines of the Ministry), and in particular for:
  - statistical and research purposes
  - providing advice to Government
  - providing support and services for you and your family
  - providing education related services
  - providing employment related services
  - care and protection needs of children.
- Work and Income may contact health providers to verify any health related information you give us.
- The information you give us may be compared with information held by Inland Revenue, the Ministry of Justice, the New Zealand Defence Force, the Department of Corrections, the New Zealand Customs Service, the Department of Internal Affairs, the Accident Compensation Corporation, Housing New Zealand Corporation, Ministry of Health and Immigration New Zealand. It may also be compared with social security information (for example, pension or benefit information) held by other governments (including Australia and the Netherlands).
- Under the Tax Administration Act 1994, if you have dependent children, the information you give us may be shared with Inland Revenue for the purpose of administering Working for Families Tax Credits. Inland Revenue may also:
  - use the information for the purposes of child support, student loans and taxation
  - disclose it to the Department of Labour, Statistics New Zealand, the Ministry of Justice, the Accident Compensation Corporation, and the Ministry of Education
  - disclose your personal information to your partner (if you have one).
- Work and Income may give employers information about you if you use our employment services.
- Work and Income may share information you have given us with childcare centres to administer your entitlement to childcare assistance.
- You are not required to give us information, but if you do not give us all the information we ask for, your application for benefits/pensions may be declined.
- Under the Privacy Act 1993 you have the right to ask to see all information we hold about you, and to ask us to correct that information.

The Disability Allowance is available for reimbursement of additional costs arising from a Disability where the following criteria is met:

1. The person has a disability which is likely to continue for not less than six months; and
2. The disability has resulted in a reduction of the person’s independent function to the extent that:
   - The person requires ongoing support to undertake the normal functions of life, or
   - The person requires ongoing supervision or treatment by a health practitioner.

For the purposes of qualifying for Disability Allowance, a disability means:
- physical disability or impairment
- physical illness
- psychiatric illness
- intellectual or psychological disability or impairment
- any other loss or abnormality of psychological, physiological, or anatomical structure or function (including sensory impairment)
- reliance on a guide dog, wheelchair, or other remedial means
